The year of the rooster

Those born in these years are firm, fashionable, quick minded, impatient, prefer make up, are sociable and may be helped by some honourable person. They have broad friends and are good in speaking and convincing in debate, and have originality in color sensations. They speak as they think, without keeping any secret. They often challenge the authorities, and are stubborn, prefer luxurious styles, and prefer being praised and praising others at the same time. They are frank and active, brave and interesting, witty with many strategies, concentrated in mind, diligent, enthusiastic and generous. In love affairs, the association and care of the loves should not be neglected, even busy in work

Relinquishing the Sword of Damocles

Cari Amici/Soke/Kaicho/Shihan/Sensei
Siamo entrati nel 2017 l'Anno del "Gallo" per lo Zodiaco cinese, il decimo.
Coma da tempo dichiarato ho dichiarato in varie forme soprattutto durante l'Assemblea Costituente della "Wjjf/Wjjko 1976" a Ostia - Roma nell' "Aula Magna" del Centro Olimpico Fijlkam, dal 1 gennaio 2017, non sono più il vostro presidente.

Una carica che mi è stata conferita a novembre 1976 a Liverpool da Soke Robert Clark con il supporto di Lucian Victor Ott;

Willy Kliesh (Germania); José Manuel Garcia; Richard Morris (Uk) e Roland Maroteaux (Francia).

Lascio la mia prestigiosa carica che credo di aver portato con onore, saggezza e determinazione.

Sarò semplicemente Imote Kaigi co-fondatore Shike.

La presidenza passa al triumvirato composto dai chairman: Amir Barnea (Isr), Stefano Draghi (Ita) e David Toney (Irl) e con il consiglio dei 5, vice chairman, composto da: Bruce Bethers (Usa), Josef Oberhollenzer (Germany), Peter Pace (Australia) Hesham Saleh Aljaser (Kuwait), Kozo Kuniba (Japan).

Sarò a disposizione di tutti coloro che desidereranno il mio personale supporto di esperienza nel mondo delle arti marziali e in particolare, e per uno sviluppo parallelo del "Koden Enshin Ryu Gsb Ha" registrato dall'ufficio del registro dall'UIBM con decorrenza 05.02.2014 con il n. 1577938.

Sono certo che "nostri moschettieri" sapranno affrontare i problemi, l'ulteriore sviluppo della nostra Federazione così ambita da una infinità di "pretendenti"

Difendetela e date il vostro massimo supporto perché la "Wjjf/Wjjko 1976" è la vostra federazione.

Grazie per l'amicizia, supporto e anche per le critiche che in questi 40 anni non mi avete risparmiato.

Così si deve per il rispetto e l'affetto.

Con stima, Dewa Mata

Dear friends /Soke/Kaicho/Shihan/Sensei, we are in the 2017 the year of the "rooster" in the Chinese Horoscope, the tenth.

As I have declared for long time and overall during the Constitutive Assembly of the "Wjjf/Wjjko 1976" in Ostia Rome in the "Aula Magna" of the Olympic Centre Fijlkam; starting from the 1 January, I'll no longer be your president.

A position I got in November 1976 in Liverpool from Robert Clark with the support of Lucian Victor, Ott; Willy Kliesh (Germany); José Manuel Garcia; Richard Morris (UK) and Roland Maroteaux (France).

I'm relinquishing my great position which I have fulfilled with honour, wisdom and determination.

I remain only the Imote Kaigi co founder Shike. The presidency is given to the triumvirate composed by the chairman: Amir Barnea (Isr), Stefano Draghi (Ita) e David Toney (Irl) with the board of the 5 vice chairmen composed of: Bruce Bethers (Usa), Josef Oberhollenzer (Germany), Peter Pace (Australia) Hesham Saleh Aljaser (Kuwait), Kozo Kuniba (Japan).

I remain at the disposition of everyone who wishes my personal and professional support in the martial arts in particular and for the parallel development of the "Koden Enshin Ryu Gsb Ha" registered by the office of the register by UIBM effective date 05.02.2014 n. 1577938. I'm sure our "musketeers" will solve the problems, the further development of our Federation so wanted by many "aspirants". Defend it and give your best support because the "Wjjf/Wjjko 1976" is your Federation.

Thanks for your friendship, support and also for the critiques I have received in the last 40 years.

Respect and love

Vice Chairman Europe

Dear Shike, Chairman, Honbu-cho, Shihan, Master and Budoka of the WJJF/WJJKO,
The new year lasts just a few weeks, and the New Year's pledges of many Budoka are in their mind... Everything is back to normal.

Since January 1st 2017, I am in the office as Vice Chairman Europe and I will address myself to the task and the great confidence. I do not want to approach the issue with exaggerated expectations - try to achieve the goals that are feasible and avoid setbacks, but these are also a part of the efforts as much as the success. A defined goal is to maintain and further consolidate the vision of the WJJF / WJJKO, as well as to keep the joy and the fun of the art of Budo. The path to it can be different, but it should never deviate from the mission statement and the values of the WJJF / WJJKO.

I am looking forward to the Budo seminar in Schwäbisch Gmünd in October, which I will organize together with people from the WJJF-Germany. At this seminar there should be discussions about the prospects of the WJJF / WJJKO. My goal is to find a common strategy for the further development of our art of Budo. The value of this seminar is not only the official program, but also the conversations. Every master and every student has the interest to improve oneself. The practice on the Tatami and the conversations with equals, are important components.

I very much hope for the support and participation of Honbu-cho, Shihan, master and students at our Budo seminar in October in Schwäbisch Gmünd.

I wish all Budoka of the WJJF / WJJKO in Europe and beyond good health, good luck and success for the year 2017.

With this in mind, yours sincerely, Oss!

Vice Chairman Europe Josef Oberhollenzer

Verehrter Shike, liebe Chairman, Honbu-cho, Shihan, Meister und Budoka der WJJF/WJJKO, das neue Jahr ist gerade mal einige Wochen alt, und die guten Vorsätze die sich mancher Budoka zum neuen Jahr gemacht hat, plagen das Gewissen... Der Alltag hat uns wieder.

Seit dem 1. Januar 2017 bin ich nun im Amte als Vice Chairman Europe und werde mich diesem großen entgegengebrachten Vertrauen und dieser Aufgabe stellen. Ich möchte mit keinen überzogenen Erwartungen an die Sache heran gehen- versuchen die Ziele in Angriff zu nehmen die machbar sind und Rückschläge zu vermeiden, aber diese gehören genauso dazu wie die Erfolge. Ein großes Ziel ist es, das Leitbild der WJJF/WJJKO zu erhalten und weiter zu festigen, sowie die Freude und den Spaß an der Budokunst aufrecht zu erhalten. Der Weg dorthin kann unterschiedlich sein, sollte aber nie vom Leitbild und den gelebten Werten der WJJF/WJJKO abweichen.

Ich freue mich auf das Budo Seminar im Oktober in Schwäbisch Gmünd, das ich mit der WJJF-D zusammen organisieren darf. Bei diesem Seminar, sollte über die Perspektiven der WJJF/WJJKO gesprochen werden, mein Ziel ist, eine gemeinsame Strategie für die Weiterentwicklung unsere Budokunst zu finden. Der Wert dieses Seminares liegt nicht nur im offiziellen Programm, sondern auch in den Gesprächen zwischendurch. Jeder Meister und jeder Schüler hat das Interesse sich weiter zu entwickeln, das Üben auf der Tatami und die Gespräche mit seinesgleichen, sind dabei wichtige Bestandteile. Ich hoffe sehr auf die Unterstützung und die Teilnahme der Honbu-cho, Shihan, Meister und Schüler bei unserem Budo Seminar im Oktober in Schwäbisch Gmünd.

Ich wünsche allen Budoka der WJJF/WJJKO in Europa und darüber hinaus für das Jahr 2017 eine gute Gesundheit viel Glück und Erfolg.

In diesem Sinne grüßt euch alle herzlichst, Oss!

Vice Chairman Europe, Josef Oberhollenzer

A very special memory

Every single part of the Israel Congress in 2011 was a highlight for me.

Our hosts were so convivial and, not long after arriving in the airport, we were very much at home with our Ju-Jitsu family who greeted us to escort us to our accommodation. The hotel was excellent and I was really taken with the beautiful city of Tel Aviv.

The first evening we spent at a beautiful restaurant near the harbour and the food was superb. The next morning all the ju-jitsu practitioners got ready for the early morning coach which would take them to the Leisure centre for world-class training. For the first time ever, I was told – if I wished I could enjoy the hotel facilities instead of going to the leisure centre. Having sat for many an hour on hard seats watching ju-jitsu and taking photos, I was lured by the sunshine and the beautiful rooftop pool and so I stayed – a decision I deeply regret knowing now that it was the last Congress Training course our Soke would attend.

When we look now, we can see in photographs of the great man, that he was slightly failed. We did not know at the time whether perhaps he had decided to diet and lost some weight – as to all intents and purposes, I am told, he was Robert Clark, the mat man – in control and on point. All participants had a fantastic days' training as always and left the mats happily exhausted with just enough time for a quick dip in the pool to revive before getting ready for that night's special Congress dinner.

Of course this trip was amazing on so many levels – for the warmth of the people, the fantastic spirituality of the country (& I am not religious) and the beautiful sights I thought I would only ever see in books. On this particular extended trip, we saw Jerusalem, walked through the Via Dolorosa, visited the Masada, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the Mount of Olives church and the Wailing wall – I am probably forgetting something! However a particular highlight for me personally was going to the Dead Sea. Although the journey by coach was quite long in the heat, the views were spectacular. I have quite an imagination, and so when our host told us that we were now below sea-level – I was both apprehensive and excited like a child and the views outside my window took on the landscape of Atlantis's kingdom! We reached another first class hotel (I will say nothing of Shihan Pete Cooke and Master instructor Jayne Cooke, much later that night, having to climb over an 8 foot wall to get back into their room when they missed the hotel's curfew!) Naturally the first thing anyone wants to do, while there, is float in the Dead Sea – an absolutely wonderful opportunity. It surely must have the elixir of youth! But truly awesome as all these new experiences were for me, what I want to recall for you is something that happened at the special Congress dinner that night – in a gorgeous intimate restaurant in the old town of Jaffa. This place was so atmospheric that I have no words to describe it: suffice to say the hospitality was second to none and the food tantalising – even for me! – a very fussy eater. The dinner was just informal enough that we had time if we wished after the courses to have a walk around the old town, another magical stroll to take in the sights.

As the night progressed and the wine was flowing – the guests all began to leave their seats and mingle more with each other. I noticed Sensei Clark sitting alone looking very wistful, watching happily all the goings-on.

In Ireland we say 'when the drink goes in, the wit goes out', and so I brazenly hopped over on to his knee to have a chat! The other thing about alcohol is that – dulling inhibitions – it also can sometimes make you connect on a different level – with energy. I asked him how he felt everything was going – he thought very well and was really pleased with all Shihan Amir's efforts for the trip. I realise now that this congress had been put together with all the special things that Soke Clark loved the most. Although he did not (was not able) to participate in all things – he wanted us to have those experiences. I said to him 'You don't seem to be your usual self' – he said 'Sometimes I just like to sit back and think'. I chatted with him about how I first met him (long story for another time) and we both laughed about it.

Then, I don't know what made me say it, but I just said 'I really want to thank you for all that you have given me in my life'. I think he was taken aback as I am not a martial artist. He brushed it off with – he hadn't given me anything! I said 'My whole life has changed since I became involved with the Federation. I've got to meet the most wonderful people, who I do consider as my second family, from all over the world, and I have got to visit the most spectacular of places – like here, where we are sitting. Working with the Federation has given me confidence and a purpose. There are thousands and thousands of people out there in the world who have had your martial art impact on their life in so many ways - and whether they know, it or acknowledge it – or not! – it is all down to you. That's not bad going for a young lad from Liverpool?'

He just smiled that enigmatic smile.

I felt like I had been sitting on his knee too long now and so I jumped off, telling him that I would leave him in peace. That was the last chance I had to speak with him. I'm so glad I got to say thank-you.

And so this May, although tinged with sadness, I am excited to say – we will gather again in this magical, incredible country, under the expert leadership of Kai cho Amir Barnea – one of the original 'sons' of the Federation, celebrating WJJF Israel's 25th anniversary – in our unique way to say thank-you once again to our Founder Robert Clark and ensure that his spirit goes on.

Torre di Mosto (1 January 2017). I wonder if Emperor Julius Caesar passing the XIII legion Invicta wrote in these lands the name of January, dedicated to the God Giano

The god with two faces, one year dying and another rebirthing.

In Japan for the budoka is the time of the KANGEIKO

The custom of the "kan geiko" dates back to 1894 and was established as a form of physical and mental training.

It begins the 6 January and lasts a month (the coldest period of the year). Before the war of 1941-45 the "kan geiko" was practiced in the early morning hours (from 5 to 7).

However, after the war, the weekly exercises are in the afternoon, and only on holidays they take place early in the morning.

The spirit has changed - less and less people are following this tradition. Many instead are talking during one feast and another and during different meetings.

Helsinki 6/8 January 2017

Langvik Hotel, the same one where also Vladimir Vladimirovič "Volodja" Putin, stays when he is in Finland, has become our focal point for the Koden Enshin Ryu Gsb Ha.

This, according to what was imagined by Soke Auvo Niiniketo of the Hokutoryu, is the style of the North or, as the Nippon say, the style of the "Orion star". The name is perfect seen that Finland, from the midnight sun to the 10 thousands lakes, is located towards the Arctic Pole.

Shihan Kimmo Tenhunen is today the ni dai, number two of the Koden, following the spirit of the Shike Imoto Kaigi Gsb.

The opportunity of this first seminar of the year – apart from the kangeiko on the 1/1/2017 in Torre di Mosto (Ve) – was to point out the techniques in kono-urano, reversed to be applied at the kata (that is the grammar of the budo) "TEN KAN, the house of the sky.

A job which lasted almost the entire Saturday the 7 January 2017.

In the evening, a great performance of the basic kyon was made by Shihan Kimmo Tenhunen with an excellent suemonogiri.

To finish, everyone ready for the bamboo cutting followed the three base levels: mudansha and yudansha. From Ireland, Belfast, the presence of the three people Sensei Kevin McCloskey, Sensei Sam Mitchell, Leona McKee and from Norway, Shihan Ottar André Vassenden.

With great satisfaction of the land, Soke Auvo Niiniketo was always attentive to the guests, as for our Paul Hoglund (President WjjConfederation).

An old Japanese history tells: "... in the gardens it is not permitted to pick the flowers, but the wind doesn't know how to read".

We could not miss the traditional Finnish sauna with some exception of the rules, and one toast, kippis, with a very good Vodka from the lake Baikal (Siberia) - its water is extracted from hundreds of metres under the ground.

Iemoto Kaigi explanation

Shi Ke Ie Moto Kai Ji

Dear Shihan, Please find my explanation of the question you asked about the Iemoto Kaigi, so Sosai - The Japanese word Sosai (Japanese: 総裁, "Sōsai") means roughly "president" or "director-general, so he is the President of the Imoto Kaigi and I have explained this below for your clear understanding, I hope this helps you. Imoto (lit. "family foundation") which is a term used to refer to the founder or current Head Master of a certain school of traditional Japanese art. Iemoto is a term and a title used in Japan which has as literal translation "house-origin" but it is commonly understood that it means "founder" or "grand master" of a certain school of art. ... It can also describe a system of familial generations in traditional Japanese arts like the tea ceremony. The founder or current Grand Master of a certain school of traditional Japanese art. It is used synonymously with the word sōke (宗家?) when it refers to the family or house that the iemoto is head of and represents. The word iemoto is also used to describe a system of familial generations in traditional Japanese arts such as tea ceremony (Inc. Sencha tea ceremony), ikebana, noh, calligraphy, traditional Japanese dance, traditional Japanese music, the Japanese art of incense appreciation (kōdō), and martial arts (Budo). Kani For Iemoto 家元 (Iemoto), very similar to Soke 宗家

Kanji for Kaigi 会議 - Convention - can be associated and like to, meeting, conference, session, assembly, council
Nippon Kaigi claims 35,000 individual members, 47 prefectural chapters, and about 230 local chapters. The organization's website lists the members depending on their seniority in an organization headed by a President seconded by Vice Presidents and a pool of "advisors", actually eminent Shinto priests leading key shrines, some of them belonging to the Imperial family.

Ranks into 6 Levels, but its back on the computer in the office.. We will finish this spring and get posted ASAP..

Meanwhile, (For Seniors) we suggest you follow the USA-TKJ “Junior Kyu System” but use Two Levels for each Senior Kyu Level Requirement, OK..

I have copied the Link for “Junior” Judo Ranks from the Website..

See: http://www.usatkj.org/uploads/5/2/4/8/52481119/usatkj_junior_judo_rank_requirements_1_jun_15.pdf

Also, during 2017, we will provide Information on adding some Atemi Waza Skills to the USA-TKJ Curriculum in accordance with Prof Kano’s guidance.

I recommend you consider purchasing the New Book: Kodokan Judo - Atemi Waza from our Kiai Budo Shop at your convenience..

We will have this Book available in February..!!
