

Bo Kimly

Past Member, Board of Directors
US National Coach 2000-2001

Member – US JU-Jitsu Masters Caucus

Shihan Kimly is a 7th Dan in Ju-Jitsu and the Kumite fighting system Former Coach USA Ju-Jitsu Team.

Born in Stockholm, Sweden, Shihan Kimly is the author of two books; Seiei Kan Ju-Jitsu - Vol. I & II. He is now living in Columbus, Ohio.

Shihan Kimly started his martial arts training in 1964 and has been a professional instructor since 1988. He is the founder of six Ju-Jitsu Clubs in Stockholm and three in US, the Martial Arts Alliance, the Ju-Jitsu Club @ Ohio State University and the Ju-Jitsu Club @ Ross County Y.M.C.A.

A National Referee in both Ju-Jitsu and Karate, Shihan Kimly has also been a successful coach on the international level, coaching Nick Wolak to become World Champion in Sport Ju-Jitsu 1996. In 1999, Shihan Kimly coached in 1999 the USA Ju-Jitsu Team at the World Kobudo Federations World Championship in Quebec City, Canada and in 2000 four students from Martial Arts Alliance to become US Champions and US Team Members. Coaching the US Ju-Jitsu Team in 2000, Shihan Kimly's efforts resulted in the US Team taking all Gold against Canada at the Continental Championship in Canton, Ohio. Also coached the US Ju-Jitsu Team at the World Championship in Copenhagen, Denmark in November, 2000, and the North American Championships in 2001.

Not limited to competitive Ju-Jitsu, Shihan Kimly is also an Instructor of Police Defense of Tactics and Police ASP Baton.