Concerning the LOGO...

It is old history beginning in 1976, in Carignan. I drew this logo, because it is one of my techniques of projection. After I decorated it with a dragon.

I asked my Belgian friend Guy Bosquet (a painter) to refine it.

Dick Morris took a photo. Some time later he printed some badges without asking my authorization.

I was surprised!! I did not say: it was my fault!!

Since then the time has passed...

I see you are having some problems with this design.

Also seen our friendship I'm confirming for you that I gave this design to you in 1976.

If you need a separate letter I'm preparing it for you:

I, the undersigned, ROLAND MAROTEAUX, declare in 1976 I gave you this logo which I drew, giving the intellectual property to Mr GIACOMO SPARTACO BERTOLETTI.

It is one projection of my technique GOSHINDO, surrounded by a dragon which became the logo of the WJJF.

I have in my hands the original design and the photos.

With my best wishes of Budoka.

ROLAND MAROTEAUX

Kaicho for Ireland is given a special recognition award by his local borough council

The councils in Ireland have just started a new process of development where they are amalgamating to make 'Super-councils'. To mark this event the Borough Council of Ballymena – where the headquarters for WJJF/KO Ireland is situated, decided to acknowledge the work of local community figures who had dedicated a lot of their time and effort to improving their local communities.

Kaicho David Toney's 25 years acting as National Coach for Ireland was highlighted, together with the fact that he had received a Lifetime Achievement Award from Soke Clark in 2004. The opening of 'The Dojo' community Martial Art Centre in the town has been heralded as an excellent facility which gives back to the community by helping to develop discipline and respect in the young people that are Ireland's future. This not only provides an excellent local base but also a central resource for the entire province as it is here that National and Black belt gradings are held as well as the WJJF/KO Ireland Coaching and Junior Leader Programmes. Toney was congratulated for his unending energy and motivation which is demonstrated in his enthusiastic approach to leading the organization and thanked for his efforts in promoting the sport of Ju-Jitsu and encouraging a healthy lifestyle for all.

He was presented with a beautiful painting depicting local life in the town, signed by local artist Judith Logan.

Hoshiyama-Ryu JuJitsu

The family Samurai Jujitsu system of Chris Kazuo Hoshiyama, 10th Dan, Menkyo Kaiden, has been passed down from Iwamatsu Hoshiyama.

Hoshiyama Sensei began his martial arts training in the family Jujitsu system passed down from his father Kazuo Hoshiyama who in turn learned from his father Iwamatsu Hoshiyama who received the Shogo title of Hanshi and rank of 10th Dan from the pre-war Dai Nippon Butokukai. Iwamatsu Hoshiyama sensei would often talk about the legendary jujitsu master Sokaku Takeda to his son Kazuo.

The Hoshiyama family comes from a long family line of Martial Artists. Hoshiyama sensei's Grandfathers side is of Samurai bloodline from the mainland of Japan.

The family Jujitsu has been passed down from this line. His Grandmother is Okinawan and moved to the mainland in the early 1900's.

With this there was a name change due to discrimination against those of Okinawan blood to a Japanese one. Hoshiyama Sensei is of a distant blood relation to the very famous Karate family of Okinawa the Shimabukuro's which was headed by Tatsuo Shimabukuro Sensei the founder of Isshin-Ryu and Eizo Shimabukuro Sensei the founder of the Shobayashi-Ryu branch of Shorin-Ryu.

The origin of the Hoshiyama Family Jujitsu has been very difficult to trace back to its beginnings. Some of the techniques have a resemblance to the very old methods of Yoshimitsu Minamoto (1056-1127), the founder of Takeda-ryu Aikijujitsu and the Yoshin-ryu school of Jujitsu founded by Yoshitoki Shirobei Akiyama around 1723. When, where, and how these connections were made remains unknown. However I must be clear this is not Aikijujitsu.

These techniques have a similarity to what is taught by some of the modern Aiki-jujitsu schools and the so-called hard Jujitsu schools. A large part of the syllabus emphasizes atemi-jitsu (vital point striking methods). The techniques that are taught are nage-waza (throwing techniques), kansetsu-waza (joint locking techniques), torite-waza (grappling hand), atemi-waza (vital point), and lastly shime-waza (choking techniques) and katame-waza (holding techniques) as these were thought to be the least important of the techniques taught.

Sensei's great-grandfather Yoshimatsu Hoshiyama (b.1825?) was born into a Samurai Family and learned all of the techniques of the Samurai tradition including Archery, Spearmanship, Swordsmanship, Horsemanship, Swimming with armor and Jujitsu (Aikijujitsu) a tradition with a history that lasted over 1000 years. Sensei's grandfather was born in 1876 during the time of Meiji at a time when the Samurai were no longer needed. Sensei's great-grandfather Yoshimatsu Sensei was reduced from being a proud warrior to becoming a rickshaw driver as his new profession. Yoshimatsu Sensei passed on only his knowledge of Jujitsu to his son Iwamatsu Hoshiyama (1876-1951) as the other arts were no longer needed. What is interesting is that when learning his family jujitsu, there were no names given to each technique and no structure given to the teaching of the art. He would be called into the garden by his father and told "we learn this today". Training for both sensei and his father would be every single day for hours at a time. The names given to each technique are a modern addition, and names adapted to differentiate each technique, many from sensei and his father.

Sensei's father Iwamatsu Sensei was born in Niigata city, Japan and moved to the United States in the 1930's where he started a flower farm in the San Fernando Valley. This farm became a thriving business until World War II when Yoshimatsu Sensei, his Okinawan wife Maki (1899-1961), sensei's father Kazuo Hoshiyama (1923-1996), his other son George (1924-1986), and daughter Hanna (1927- ) were all American citizens who were imprisoned in the Manzanar Relocation Facility. Manzanar was one of 10 Internment Camps that held over 120,000 Americans of Japanese descent prisoner during World War II. During Kazuo Sensei's time in the camp he trained not only in the family form of Jujitsu, which he began as a small boy with his father, but also trained with friends who studied several Jujitsu disciplines along with Judo. This must have not been an easy task as it is doubtful that the prisoners would have been allowed to train openly.

His father passed down the system to his son, what he had learned over the years, most of which sensei has kept to himself, with only sharing his knowledge with one or two very close students, with some of what he had learned from his father, mostly as Karate bunkai (kata application). A few years ago after suffering a crippling injury in a car accident he decided it is time to pass on his families Jujitsu techniques before they are forgotten. With this in mind he chosen two trusted students, Withey sensei and Tapia sensei to pass his knowledge to preserve the system, in order that they can carry forth the teaching of this unique system to more students to keep it alive. It has to be said this old style of jujitsu is different and very devastating, not for the faint hearted and can only be taught to adults. Sensei often reminds his students that there are "no nages (throws)" ..?

This message can only be fully understood when one is on the receiving end of a technique, because if the techniques are fully applied, you will not be able to break-fall, because you will have received broken or separated bones, become debilitated, or deceased before the completion of the technique.

Withey sensei recently stated, "everything I have researched on traditional and ancient jujitsu is that if the technique took more than 2-3 seconds, it wasn't worth practicing because you would be dead on the battle field, ambushes, or even in unrestricted combat fights amongst clans". Another example here would be Yama-nage Rukko, or Hoshiyama mountain throw similar to a technique called "Yama Arashi", from which, very few opponents, if ever were able to stand after the technique was applied, causing massive internal damage. This was deemed too violent for Judo, because both arms can be snapped before they hit the floor!

The special whips, hip rotations, centreline accelerated techniques define the Hoshiyama Jujitsu system, with little or no ground techniques, because you are on a battle field fighting numerous people intent on your destruction. This is one of the very few true battlefield systems left. Understanding the feudal battlefield of ancient Japan, you lost your weapon, you had seconds to either find another one or relieve your enemy of his, and if you go to ground you were history!

Withey sensei will be in Devon England conducting a WBKA seminar on 22nd & 23rd August 2015, details; email: ShodaiMA@outlook.com

Havana (4 - 10 May 2015)

Passing through Santo Domingo, where is living and working our Syuseki Shihan (To-kei), a lover of old weapons, Angelo Balconi, Cuba seems a reality outside the world.

Life and bureaucracy is stopped at the time of the "Revolution" of the barbudos of Fidel and Raul Castro - Barbudos is the name by which the Cuban revolutionary of the movement of the 26 July 1953 were known.

The spirit of the commander Ernesto Guevara de la Serna - well known as Che Guevara or simply el Che (1928-1967) – is there stopped as we thought again at the conquest of the barrack Mancada the 26 July 1953.

A long time ago, when there was the political campaign of Maria Guevara, sister of “El Che”, but without his charisma, power, job. The Argentinean, Heroes of the “Revolution” he is always there, among the old walls of Malecom and why not, on the horizon of Hatamoto, chief of the guards of the daimyo (noble) of Date, feudatory (daimy) Japanese (1430-1473), whose domain covered the majority of the island of Shikoku. Hosokawa Katsumoto <hosokaua kazumoto> . -

The time to pass the impact of the typhoon in the Caribbean sea; one visit to the garden of the great wise, the venerable Confucios (551 a.C. – 479 a.C) along with Ernesto Camillo Hechaviarria Reyna (Wjjf/Wjjko) and his students and family; and finally here I'm in Cayo Largo. The island in the blue paradise of the Ocean and of the nature, is there, as for the Hollywood film the island of coral (Key Largo) a film from 1948 directed by John Huston, with Humphrey Bogart, Edward G. Robinson and Lauren Bacall .

The Bravo Club of Cayo Largo a little paradise, that changes your life. It is one of the 4 villages that with Alpitour, the Wjjko has the “special weeks” Naxos Greece 26 June 10 July, Shihan Stefano Draghi Cala Landrusa Calabria 4 to 18 July, Gsb and Roberto De Ronzi Almaza Beach Marsa Matrouh Egypt 4 to 18 August Luigi Nosi Here everything is special: the sky, the sea, a simple palace, that allows us to forget a little bit of our society of consumption. Also the wi fi signal is present and not, but this is not a problem in such a place.

The chief of the village, Alessandra, Aries as me, if she is not painting something old because of the years, she is busy taking care of the Cubans losing in their fantasy.

With her, Gluaco, chief of entertainment and the staff, moving at a scheduled pulse. Martin, “el comandante” the reference for the excursions, the right person in the right place.

What about us? The master Maestro Andrea Bove and me, nothing more to say.. “the special week” is special also for us: martial arts/self defence Pi Kwan Shu (what's) they are only one reflection pause to complete the job of the muscular awakening in the contest of something outside the routes.

There is also another- “bravo” a little dog, a mascot one half Labrador, and he is the soul of the centre. His name is, if not “Bravo”, in Castilian “bad” because of bad he has nothing!!

And “Bravo” ... obviously “club”!

Carrara 31 May 2015

Dear friends, I'm happy some of you were with me at the seminar of the 31 May in Carrara. It has been a wonderful experience among many others.

Blue jackets, proud to be member of the great family- that one of the World Ju Jitsu Federation. There were Shike Giacomo Spartaco Bertolotti, and the

Shihan Stefano Draghi, Giovanni Ronchini, David Gobbi, Guido Nicoli, Andrea

Colombini ,for Italy. And also the new 8° Dans, David Toney from Ireland and Amir Barnea from Israel.

More than 350 participants, with many happy children who represent our future.

But also many black belts, divided in 6 areas prepared by the masters Nicoli and Colombini,- very good masters of the house and excellent organizers of this important international event.. it has been a long time since I saw so many black belts, from the 1° to the 6° Dan, training all together.

It has been a great satisfaction to be among the teachers of a "class" composed by the high levels, but anyway very interested in learning and overall very humble - "without having the nose in the air".

This is in my opinion the right spirit of being on the tatami.

Very nice the respect for the job of the other people and the real desire to cooperate spreading in the many groups belonging to the Italian World.

Soon will land the project WJJF Italy and then we will see many nice things.

See you soon

Young people to the fore

Approximately 130 young people and 46 adults gathered at the dojo headquarters for the Bi-annual prestigious WJJF/KO Black Belt gradings.

All had spent months in the run up to the grading practicing and developing their skills until they had their knowledge of the syllabus finely tuned and they had reached their peak of fitness. The Senior Technical committee, headed up by Kaicho David Toney in Ireland, have tightened their criteria making it much more difficult to pass the standards at mock grading in order to be entered for the full test.

Overall this has brought the quality of the Blackbelts passing the grade to a very high standard and allows the students to know that they have truly been

1° Special Martial Meeting

Dear Shihan, in the circle of the social relationship between the sport structures and the Army, our Federation, independently from the protocol Fijlkam/ Ministry of the Defence, to whom we are giving our plaudit, has reached large minded.

In 2014, thanks of the proposal of the Shihan, Mirko De Cristoforo (Club Bushido Martial Academy asd) we were guests at the "46° flight brigade of Pisa", of which 50 years ago, on the 11th November 1961, in Kindu, (ex Belgium Congo) died 13 members. They were attacked (because members of the blue helmets of Onu they were disarmed) by African mercenaries, massacred and later killed and brake it up.

On this bright wake of glory, the colleague "zuishin" Hanshi Gianni Ronchini (3474401047) and the Shihan David Gobbi (3358012046) of the Kami Center of Mestre (info@kamicenter.com) have organized the 1° Special Martial Meeting Wjjko-Wjjf headed inside the Military airport head quarters of the 51° flight formation of Istrana in cooperation with the Aeronautics dpt Istrana (TV) and the asd Ronin Ju Jitsu Combat instructors Racioppoli Luigi (3931214950) and Roberto Farris (3474633367).

It is an important task confirming, if still important, the power, the support of the groups which are part of the Wjjf Italy.

The program of the weekend (9/11 October) consists of a lot of important events from the European certification UPKL, for a technical up to date.

The occasion of Istrana let us to invite in addition to the high level instructors of the Wjjf-Italy and maybe some important people of the world Wjjf/Wjjko.

Will follow asap some technical particulars, information and advertising with the details and the program of the weekend 9/11 October 2015.

We hope the date of the 10 /11 October could be a symbol of loyalty, efficiency and sense of duty of every one of us!!!
